Turn Technology into your Advantage

Knitting together multiple best-of-breed systems is both expensive and outdated. Adopting a next generation, integrated single platform will not only save you a lot of headaches and money, but will also transform your business with new speed and responsiveness.

Move at the Speed of Business

The investment world is constantly evolving with new product offerings, stricter regulatory requirements, and an explosion of complex data. Respond to the challenge by adopting a new, smart and agile system.

Solve for Today's Problems while Investing for the Future

Ruby allows you to diversify your wealth by supporting both financial and non-financial assets in one platform. It gives you the peace of mind that your investment books are in ship shape at all times, while you focus on preserving and growing your wealth.

Dig into Big Data with Ruby's Robotics and AI Tools

Take advantage of Ruby's Robotics and AI capabilities, custom-built for the investment management business, to make the most of your data and improve your investment decisions.
